Baby

The room
of your life

Hans Sandgren Jakobsen, who is known not only for his passion for wood but also for his light and airy design universe, creates furniture which first and foremost fulfills a need.

reddot design award winner 2013

The Baby High Chair from the new FLEXA Baby Collection is awarded the international red dot design award 2013 for its innovative design expression, ergonomically correct seating and optimum function. The chair won the award ahead of 4,662 other designs submitted from 54 different countries

"My idea was to create a piece of furniture which optimises the meal situation. I focused on the ergonomics and freedom of movement, but my design also coordinates with contemporary Scandinavian interior design. The products are designed for the room of your life."

Hans Sandgren Jakobsen,
Danish furniture designer
